

See Things Differently Explore England's Enchanting Northeast Coast: 5-Day Sample Itinerary

The English coastline is one of the most exciting in the world, more than 185 million years old, and one of the most varied, rich in maritime port cities, quaint villages, family resorts, nature and wildlife. This year England's Coast Path has been officially renamed as the 'King Charles III England Coast Path'. The National Trail is scheduled to be fully accessible for walking by the end of 2024 and will stretch over 2,700 miles in total length once completed. Northumberland's coast features dramatic landscapes and magnificent castles, quiet sandy coves and quaint fishing villages with more castles than any county in Britain. Trips includes adventures to the Holy Island of Lindisfarne, the spectacular Bamburgh Castle and the inspiring county Durham.

Please note: The below itinerary offers a grand tour of the North East England, hopping between quaint villages, daunting castles and breathtaking estates along the Northumberland and Durham coast. It is strongly recommended to arrive via train to Alnwick Station or fly into Newcastle International Airport and use a car rental or coach journeys for the duration of the trip. For car rental options from Newcastle, please check out companies such as Enterprise, Hertz, Avis, and Budget. If you prefer travel by train or coach, visit National Rail for rail routes and National Express for coach routes. Check here for local public transport options in Northumberland and Durham.
