- Great tastes, food and drink including sports bars, casual dining and award-winning cuisine with the finest local ingredients.

	Day 1
Morning	Arrival
_	Check into hotel
Hotel Check -in	Millennium And Copthorne Hotels At Chelsea Football Club
	Stamford Bridge, Fulham Road, SW6 1HS
	Home of the Blues! Situated within the grounds of Chelsea Football Club, the Millennium &
	Copthorne Hotels at Chelsea FC are located in the fashionable district of SW6, a 5-minute walk to Fulham Broadway. The hotel is split across two sites right next to Stamford Bridge – a dream come true for many Chelsea Fans.

Lunch	Options in Chelsea:
	Scalini A favourite with Chelsea managers and players, this high-end restaurant even had a dish named after José Mourinho, Chelsea Manager, in the past. In the heart of Chelsea within ten minutes' drive of Chelsea stadium. La Famiglia
	A favourite of Chelsea Manager Claudio Ranieri (who went on to lead Leicester in their extraordinary championship victory) and Chelsea players over the years.
Afternoon	Self-Guided Tour Options:
	Arsenal Emirates Stadium Self-Guided Audio Tour Enjoy a unique and unforgettable all-access tour of the Emirates Stadium, home of Arsenal. Tickets can be booked through the VisitBritain shop. Beavertown Brewery - Corner Pin Pub - Tottenham Corner Pin pub right by the stadium which is now very bright and colourful and a microbrewery inside the ground and another taproom in Tottenham. Full of fans on a match day you will find local characters to entertain with stories of matches past and hopes for the future season.
	Tottenham Stadium Tour Step behind the scenes at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium and explore the stadium on a bespoke short press tour with knowledgeable guide.
	Walk in the footsteps of your favourite players and gain exclusive access to first-team areas and learn about how the stadium has been designed to create one of the best match-day experiences in the world. There are few stadiums in the world quite like the Tottenham Hotspur Stadium. It's a special place where heritage and modern design collide to create a spectacular environment for live sport and entertainment. Visitors can go behind the scenes on a self-guided tour, choose a private group tour led by a knowledgeable tour guide, or, for a truly special experience, walk the famous corridors with a Spurs Legend.
	Experiences around London
	The Goal Hanger - Walthamstow Football art in a Box Park with food and drink venues for an alternative view of football. The World's smallest sports art gallery, offering artists view of the beautiful game. The Freemasons Arms - Covent Garden In 1863, the Football Association met at 'The Freemasons Arms' to thrash out the laws of football. The pub celebrates their history with soccer memorabilia in the bar downstairs. They serve traditional pub food and authentic Kentish cask ales. Café Kick - Clerkenwell
	Football themed and bedecked throughout with a series of table football, beers and cocktails. Great atmosphere and not just on match days for the visitor and to meet fellow enthusiasts and Londoners at play. The Dare Skywalk
	This adrenaline-pumped, 90-minute experience will challenge adventure-seekers to take it to the edge by scaling the height of one of the newest landmarks in London – Tottenham Hotspur Stadium. This award-winning stadium is the UK's most technologically advanced, and the biggest club stadium in London, seating over 62,000 fans. Strap yourselves in as engaging guides take you all the way to the stadium roof. A waiver form will need to be completed before the climb.
Dinner	Butchers Hook Meal at the pub where Chelsea Football Club was formed in an upstairs room in the pub. A favourite of fans and Prince Harry was known to have popped in also. Chelsea was founded on 10 March 1905 at The Rising Sun pub (now The Butcher's Hook), opposite the present-day main entrance to the ground on Fulham Road, and were elected to the Football League shortly afterwards.
Overnight	Millennium and Copthorne Hotels at Chelsea Football Club
	Day 2
Morning	Breakfast optional at hotel or at the below if you want to explore.
	The Regency Café This traditional cafe, opened in 1946 on Westminster's Regency Street, has a wall of Tottenham Hotspur football player photographs as the co-owner is a super fan. This traditional cafe has simple art deco styling, the tiling is original, but the tables are new and Formica topped. The cafe has been featured as a filming location in several TV series such as Judge John Deed, Rescue Me and Lunch	London Spy. It has also appeared in the films Layer Cake, Brighton Rock and Pride. BUSTRONOME Gastronomic meal on a double-decker bus while touring the city – a unique experience to see the city differently while enjoying a fab feast at the front of a double decker bus. The BUSTRONOME is a high-end double-decker bus with a panoramic dining room to see stunning vistas of London while enjoying a fine meal. A great way to see the city for visiting fans and have a great slap-up meal at the same time. All aboard!
